COLLECTION OF EDELLEN WILLE

Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense.
 —Ralph Waldo Emerson

March on. Do not tarry. To go forward is to move toward perfection.
 March on, and fear not the thorns, or the sharp stones on life's path.
 —Kahlil Gibran

The best parts of this world were not fashioned by those who were realistic.
 They were fashioned by those who dared to look hard at their wishes and gave them horses to ride.

— Richard A. Nelson

Love and fear. Everything the father of a family says must inspire one or the other.

Freedom, then, lies only in our innate human capacity to choose between different sorts of bondage, bondage to desire or self esteem, or bondage to the light that lightens all our lives.

— Sri Madhava

He who travels in search of something which he has not got, travels away from himself and grows old even in youth among old things.

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

Courage is reckoned the greatest of all virtues;
 because, unless a man has that virtue,
 he has no security for preserving any other.
 — Samuel Johnson

Rarity gives a charm; so early fruits and winter roses are the most prized;
and coyness sets off an extravagant mistress.

while the door always open tempts no suitor.

— Marcus Valerius Martial
